

SUMMER LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

The Union for Reform Judaism has several extraordinary summer programs coming up in July and August

EIE Summer Study Program for Adults in Israel

July 4 -18, 2010

Come along for a unique living, learning, study and travel experience in Israel! We've taken NFTY's successful, nearly 50-year old EIE High School in Israel program as our model and created the EIE Summer Study for Adults - an exceptional opportunity for adults of all ages to learn, live, and explore Israel. Visit our website for our program and itinerary, or call Rabbi Joan Glazer Farber, 212.650.4086.

Summer Learning Institute

August 4 - 8, 2010

The Glen Cove Mansion

200 Dosoris Lane, Glen Cove, NY 11542

The Summer Learning Institute is an extraordinary opportunity to gather with other Jewish learners for in-depth study, spiritual renewal and personal growth.

Each of the three SLI programs provides participants with the opportunity to deepen their knowledge and learn techniques in one of three areas of congregational life: engaging in serious Jewish study, working with interfaith families, and facilitating and supporting worship and life cycle rituals.

Kallah 2010

"Reform Judaism - Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow"

August 4-8, 2010

- Immersion in Jewish texts and ideas led by outstanding teachers
- Dynamic, innovative worship
- A vibrant, committed community · Spiritual renewal
- Full days of study and spiritual growth, including six sessions of a limud (text-based study seminars), plus additional workshops and learning opportunities
- The entire Kallah community joins together for daily worship and meals, plus entertainment, singing and socializing

Rabbi Alexander Schindler Fellows Program for Interfaith Families Certification

August 5-8, 2010

This innovative five-day program will prepare lay leaders to support, educate and encourage interfaith couples and families to make Jewish choices in their lives. Participants will receive a thorough grounding in group facilitation by specifically addressing the challenges of interfaith families. The Had'rachah Seminar for Lay Leadership in Religious Life (formerly Sh'liach K'hilah/Synagogue Associate Program) August 4 - 8, 2010
