July 15 - 22, 2010

There are a few spaces left this Sunday, July 25 for scribing between 10:00 a.m and noon, and from 12:30 to 1:15. If you would like to participate, please call Alice Miller tomorrow, Friday, to schedule a time.

We have scheduled our next date with our scribe on Monday, August 30, 2010, from 5:00-9:00 p.m.. Please call Alice Palombo as soon as possible to set an appointment to scribe your letter in the Torah. (See Torah Project explanation below.)

Come and join us for wine and cheese following our 6:00 p.m. Shabbat evening services through August 20. There will be NO 8:00 p.m. service during this period.

If you have not sent back your forms for the Book of Memory and/or Request for Additional Tickets for out of town relatives, please do so as soon as possible. Remember that the High Holy Days begin on September 8. This year, in keeping with our goal of being "Green", please combine names of couples you are remembering, rather than listing them individually, if possible. You would be surprised at how many trees we can save just by this small gesture.

Rabbi Robert Davis

In this week's portion, we are commanded to "Honor your father and your mother." It doesn't say that we must love them or even like them, but rather we must understand that they, like us, are creatures of freewill. We must not forget

High Holy Day Ushers needed - If anyone is interested in ushering for the High Holy Days please contact Howard Broad at 305.318.2384 or email hbroad@bellsouth.net

Check out some of the very new, exciting classes which will be taught by our clergy on July 27, 28, August 3 and 4. They are described below. You may also check our website for the Temple Beth Sholom July Calendar.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS

A Saturday Shmeer of Torah

Saturday mornings, 9:00 - 10:00 a.m., July 24, 31.

Start your Saturday morning with bagel, a shmeer (spread) of cream cheese, and Torah Study. Each Shabbat morning before services (which start at 10:00 a.m.), we will study Parashat HaShavua (the weekly Torah portion). The Rabbis will lead a discussion of ancient commentaries and teachings as we reveal the Torah's modern and relevant lessons.

Torah stories your mother wouldn't DARE tell you!

Wednesday evening, 7:00 p.m., July 28 and August 4.

Join Rabbinic Intern Laila Haas to learn what was really going on in those tents! Unravel and reveal stories of intrigue and scandal direct from the Torah.

Does Madonna know something about Judaism that I don't?

Tuesday evenings, 7:00 p.m., July 27; August 3.

Rabbi Glickstein will teach this brief introductory course describing the history, theology, structure and impact of Kabbalah (Jewish mysticism) in our times.

that children will only honor their parents if they have been treated with the same dignity and respect. Marilyn Van Debur Adler taught, "Honor your children and they will honor you." Question: What can you do to honor yourself as a person worthy of being treated with honor and what can you do treat others in a dignified and respectful way.

A Mitzvah for Generations

Look for the names of everyone who has contributed to the Torah Project in the August HaKol. Don't be left out of this once in a lifetime opportunity to be a part of the history of Temple Beth Shalom.

Save the date Sunday, October 3, 2010 at 11:00 a.m. when we will complete and dedicate the newly scribed Torah. There will be fun for the entire family: a parade around the neighborhood, games for the kids and a celebration brunch.

For those who are still interested, we have scheduled another session with our scribe on Monday, August 30th. If you haven't already put your letter in our Torah, please call Alice Palombo at ext. 258 in the temple office to make your reservation. There are 1,000 letters to be filled into our new Torah. Be a part of writing a Torah that will be used for the next generation of Bar and Bat Mitzvah ceremonies. Tell your child that you helped to write the Torah they will read from. Has your child already had a Bar/Bat Mitzvah? Why not dedicate his/her portion for posterity? Call the Temple office for more information.

(See sidebar)

Each week we bring you another item about the Torah as this year, 5770, has been our Year of the Torah and we want every family to be a part of our Torah project, Write Here, Right Now, A Mitzvah for Generations. Call Alice Palombo at ext. 258 to find out how you can join the over 165 families who have already purchased a part of the Torah.
